Asserts New Discovery Brings Blessed Relief to Hay Fever Sufferers

Can Make it Yourself at Home at Trifling Expense

In spite of all the doubts and scoffers, a man in Kentucky, who changed his annoying and distressing Hay Fever into less than a mild cold, claims most emphatically that if taken in time Hay Fever or Rose Fever can be conquered or at least made so harmless that it is not even bothersome.

He gave his discovery to scores of other sufferers with the most remarkable results and has recently been prevailed upon to disclose it through Pharmacists to all Hay and Rose Fever sufferers who still have faith that nature has provided an effective remedy for this common, yet miserable disease.

And best of all this remedy costs almost nothing. Get three-quarter ounce bottle of Mentholized Arcline at any drug store, pour the contents into a pint bottle and fill the pint bottle with water that has been boiled. Then gargle as directed and twice daily sniff or spray each nostril thoroughly.

That's all there is to it so simple that a lot of people will say that it can't do the work, but oftentimes simple, natural remedies are the best; as you will find after using.

If you will make up a pint and use it for a week or ten days you need not be surprised if your unwelcome yearly visitor fails to appear.

Mentholized Arcline is new in this market. It is possible that your druggist has not supplied himself, but he can get it for you from his jobber, who has a large supply.

The Duesenberg--The Speedway Racing Sensation of 1920

The 1920 Speedway performance of the Duesenberg "Eight in a Row" is the most remarkable in the history of motor car racing. The Speedway is the acid test of motor car performance.

Los Angeles, Indianapolis, Uniontown, Tacoma—they all pay tribute to the car and motor built by the master designer and engineer, Fred S. Duesenberg, chief engineer and vice president of the Duesenberg Automobile and Motors Company, Inc., of Indianapolis.

FOUR GREAT SPEEDWAY VICTORIES

Jimmy Murphy at Los Angeles, February 28, 1920, in a non-stop run won the 250 mile race at 103 miles an hour.

In the 500-mile Indianapolis annual, May 31, Duesenberg cars, driven by Tommy Milton, Jimmy Murphy and Eddie Hearne, won third, fourth and sixth with the Mulford Special and the Revere, both equipped with Duesenberg "Eight in a Row" motors, finishing ninth and tenth—five prizes for Duesenberg "Eight in a Row" motors, out of ten awarded.

Victory at Uniontown, Pa., June 19, was complete. The Duesenberg cars, driven by Tommy Milton, Jimmy Murphy, Eddie O'Donnell and Pittsburgh "Phil" Peifferman, taking in order the first four places. Milton winning time for the 225 miles was 94.9 miles per hour.

At Tacoma, July 5, in the great race classic of the Northwest, Tommy Milton won first without a stop, driving the 225 miles at an average of 95 miles an hour. Eddie Hearne, in a Duesenberg equipped Revere, was third; Jimmy Murphy and Eddie O'Donnell, driving Duesenberg "Eight in a Row" motor cars, finished sixth and eighth.

On the Florida Beach in April, Tommy Milton, driving the Duesenberg Special, broke all speed records by going 150 miles an hour, winning the title of World's Speed King.

"BILLY" BISHOP WRITES COURIER OF FRISCO TRIP

Connellsville Car Attracts Attention in the Golden State.

PARTY MEETS OLD TIMER

Low Bentley Inquires What Certain Local Men Are Going to Do for Senator Harding; Scarcely of Gasoline Causes Change of Plans.

We spent our first day at the Golden Gate park, where the old 10th Pennsylvania boys camped on their way to Manila, Philippine Islands, during the Spanish war. Then to the beach and Cliff house, Sea Rocks. Here we met Mrs. Ridgeway from New Jersey. She saw the sign on our car, "Connellsville, Pa. to California" and noticed Harding's picture. She said, "Well, hello, Connellsville. I know where it is. I had to go from Uniontown to Connellsville to get a train to Washington, D. C." She said that she was a cousin to S. Ray Shelby, Uniontown, and that Harding's picture on the car looked as good to her as it did to Ray Shelby. "You know how good it looks to him," she added.

We will remain here for a while seeing the city. It is real cold here, everybody wearing overcoats and the ladies wearing furs. I do not know why the girls back home wear furs in the months of July and August but they wear them here to keep warm. We have seen no rain since we left Arizona.

On our road to Frisco we stopped to get gas at Oak Hill filling station. The proprietor said: "Hello, Connellsville! This is the first time I have put gas into a Pennsylvania machine. Would like to all it for you but the oil company will allow only three gallons." He said he was never near Connellsville, but that he helped to build a Spreckels sugar factory, the largest in the world, at Salinas, Cal. "I've got all the steel beams and all the iron and steel tubes from Pittsburgh and all our coke came from Connellsville," he said.

Going through the parks we met a rubber-neck wagon, loaded with a party from Pennsylvania. When they saw Harding's picture and Pennsylvania banner on our car they all stood up and shouted, "Hurrah for Harding and Pennsylvania." The driver, when he saw my license number, 301,030, asked, "Are the license numbers that high in Arizona?" I said, "No; that is the majority we're going to give Harding back in Pennsylvania."

Back in Arizona, they tell me Arizona is a Democratic state, but two years ago the Democrats got together and voted with the Republicans, electing a Republican governor. "This fall they are going to do the same thing and Arizona will be strong for Harding," Harding is strong all along the Santa Fe trail.

Here in Frisco Lew S. Bentley saw our banner and Harding's picture and said: "Hello, Connellsville! Are Jack Doyle, Frank Linteman, Tom Baxter, Andy George, J. R. Davidson, Bill Scott and Harry Carpenter of Connellsville, Charley Yeagley of Confluence and young Nat Divvons of Uniontown for him?" I said "they sure are." He said, "Well, tell them all I am, too." Bentley is in the automobile supplies business here.

From Missouri to San Francisco we found camping grounds for automobile parties, where they furnish water, light, coal and wood to cook with, stoves and kitchens, ladies' and gentlemen's rest rooms—and no charges. Every town seems to be trying to outdo the other by providing better camping grounds, and they advertise them all along the route. Hundreds of people from northern California are camping at Los Angeles and at other places in the southern part, while it is the same coming here from Los Angeles. This makes the trip to the coast (no because, when hotels in the towns are filled, you can put up your tent and sleep. We came through a number of towns holding big celebrations and therefore could get no accommodations, so up went our tent and we stayed to see the fun.

If we find that the gas shortage is still on in Washington and Oregon we will have to miss these two states and go by the Lincoln highway through California, Nevada, Idaho, Montana and Utah.

The Lincoln highway does not go into Montana, Wisconsin nor Michigan but we are going that way because we want to miss the states we have already gone through. The Lincoln highway goes direct—California, Idaho, Utah, Wyoming, Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and goes up to Wisconsin, cutting out Illinois and Indiana, through which states we passed on our trip west.

After seeing all the cities and states, we go back to Connellsville, Pennsylvania, the best city in the post state in the whole country.

(The end)
A Travelling Man's Experience.
You may learn something from the following by W. H. Ireland, a travelling salesman of Louisville, Ky. "In the summer of 1913 I had a severe attack of cholera morbus. I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and to take no substitute. I took a double dose of it according to the directions and went to sleep. At five o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping place, a well man."—Adv.

The Initial Showing of Autumn Modes

In Our New Ready to Wear Salon
Cordially Invites Your Inspection

New colors, new styles and new materials are here to intrigue your interest and show how Fashion wends her way along new paths in the realm of women's wear.

Brown is the new color this year and Autumn herself knows no greater range from golden leaved Chestnut to the polished bronze of her Oaks than is found in the lovely hues of fall apparel which Fashion offers this year to relieve the sombreness of wintry skies.

Beautiful blues are still to the fore and the nasturtium shades so brilliant and gay will save many a costume from being too sedate.

The Suits—

—Velveteen, Chambray and Duo-tone add three new and wonderfully beautiful fabrics to the materials already so popular for suits.—Duval de Laine, Silverstone, Tinseltone, Tricotone and fine wool Velour.

Strictly tailored suits draw sharp distinctions this year, leaving the loose box effects to change their styles whenever they please, they bring working a "preco change" and making blouses or decided waist lines on suits which are decidedly adaptable to their wearers' whims.

The New COATS for Fall

—are decidedly wrappy and sometimes its hard to tell just what they are—but whether they are voluminous coats or coatlike wraps they are warm and warm looking in the depth of the pile of velvety woolsens and the richness of soft colorings.

Duvette, Chamo, Ondalotte, Chambray, Frost Cloth, Velveteen, Bolivia and Marvella are just a few of these hybrid names, but when found in market, coatlike, blanket, heavy, silk, chippendale, seal brown, navy or black lose all their strangeness and become simply charming effects in weave and color, whether they fashion straight backed tailored coats or blousy, big sleeved wraps.

The first coats have another charm—they are quite reasonably priced—and that is a virtue not to be overlooked when everyone is expecting things to be so high.

The Gowns—

Autumn's brown distinguishes the dresses of early fall whether they are lovely fine serge and tricotines or mignonette silk or satin, but navy blue has not yet yielded its place and so among the newest frocks are found these colors vying for first place in the most attractive new styles.

Chinese wool and beads trace oriental embroidery upon the autumn frocks and give them rare distinction. And, as if fearing a cold, cold winter, sleeves have grown long again.

But never again! I've opened a checking account with the First National of Connellsville, and hereafter I pay everything by check."—Adv.
